UNIVERSITY OF JOHANNESBURG

What is Just and Equitable Compensation for Land Reform?

The South African Institute for Advanced Constitutional, Public, Human Rights and International Law, a centre of the University of Johannesburg Faculty of Law, in collaboration with the Konrad Adenauer Foundation, will be hosting a day seminar on what constitutes just and equitable compensation in the context of the expropriation of land for purposes of land reform.

This seminar will explore various issues connected with the compensation requirement and focus on three key topics: who should be compensated for expropriation, who should pay compensation, and the constitutionality of awarding compensation that is below market value when the purpose is land reform.

Speakers include: Prof Lungisile Ntsebeza (UCT), Prof Heinz Klug (Wisconsin Law School), Prof Elmien du Plessis (NWU), and Mr Thabiso Mbhense (LRC)

After lunch there will be a panel debate, followed by an open-floor discussion.

Panellists include: Mr Jeremy Cronin (Department of Public Works), Ms Phephelaphi Dube (Centre for Constitutional Rights), Prof Jackie Dugard (Wits), and Mr Sanele Sibanda (Wits).

DATE: Friday, 9 June 2017

TIME: 08h30–15h30

VENUE: Council Chambers, Madibeng Building, UJ Auckland Park Kingsway campus

RSVP: Before 31 May 2017 to Ms Naomi Hove (naomi@saifac.org.za). Kindly indicate any dietary requirements and, for parking, please provide the registration number and make of your car. Seats are limited.

COST: R100 per person.

Konrad Adenauer Stiftung

SAIFAC

South African Institute for Advanced Constitutional, Public, Human Rights & International Law